- 8.2.1 Any income, benefit or advantage gained by the Trust shall be applied to the charitable purposes of the Trust.
 - 8.2.2 No Trustee of the Trust, or any person associated with a Trustee, shall participate in or materially influence any decision made by the Trust in

9. Indemnity of Trustees

9.1 Without prejudice to the right of indemnity by law given to trustees, the Trustees shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the Trust Fund in respect of all liabilities and expenses incurred by them in the execution or purported execution of the trusts hereof or of any powers, authorities or discretions vested in them pursuant to this deed and against all actions, proceedings, costs, claims and demands in respect of any matter or thing done or omitted or in any way relating to the Trust Fund other than a claim arising out of a wilful fraudulent or dishonest default or wilful, fraudulent or dishonest breach of trust and the Trustees may retain and pay out of any monies in their hands arising from the trusts of this deed all sums necessary to effect such indemnity and the Trustees have a charge on the Trust Fund for all monies payable to them under this clause or otherwise howsoever arising out of and in connection with this deed.

10. Incorporation under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957

10.1 If and whenever it is possible for them to do so, the Trustees may apply for incorporation under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 or registration under the Charities Act 2005 or both and may exercise the powers of variation in clause 12 hereof to effect such changes to this deed as may be necessary to enable them to qualify for such incorporation or registration or both.

11. Common Seal

11.1 If they consider it appropriate to do so, the Trustees may adopt a common seal for the Trust. That seal will be kept in the custody of the chairperson of the Trust or by whomsoever that chairperson may nominate.

11.2 The common seal will not be affixed to any document except by resolution of the Trustees. The seal must be affixed in the presence of two Trustees who must sign the document so sealed.

12. Variation of this Deed

12.1 The Trustees may, from time to time, by resolution carried by as majority of the Trustees alter, revoke or amend any of the terms of this deed, provided that no such alteration, revocation or amendment shall be made which detracts from the provisions of clause 8 of this deed, or which detracts from the objects of the Trust or which may affect the charitable nature of the Trust.

13. Winding Up

13.1 The Trust may be wound up or dissolved upon a unanimous resolution of the Trustees at a meeting of the Trustees called for that purpose. There shall be no less than thirty days' notice of such meeting to the Trustees.

13.2 On any winding up of the Trust or its dissolution by the Registrar of the High Court under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, all surplus assets of the Trust shall be given to such exclusively charitable organisation as the Trustees shall decide, or, if the Trustees are unable to make any such decision, shall be disposed of in accordance with the directions of the High Court under Section 27 of the Charitable Trusts Act.

14. Mediation and Arbitration

14.1 Any dispute arising out of or relating to this deed may be referred to mediation, a non-binding dispute resolution process in which an independent mediator facilitates negotiation between parties. Mediation may be initiated by either party writing to the other party or identifying the dispute which is being suggested for mediation. The other party will either agreed to proceed with mediation or agree to attend a preliminary meeting with the mediator to discuss whether mediation would be helpful in the circumstances. The parties will agreed on a suitable person to act as mediator or will ask the Mediators and Arbitrators Institute of New Zealand Inc. to appoint a mediator. The mediation will be in accordance with the Mediation Protocol of the Arbitrators and Mediators Institute of New Zealand Inc.

14.2 The mediation shall be terminated by:

14.2.1 The signing of a settlement agreement by the parties;

14.2.2 Notice to the parties by the mediator, after consultation with the parties, to the effect that further efforts at mediation are no longer justified;

14.2.3 Notice by one or more of the parties to the mediation to the effect that further efforts at mediation are no longer justified;

14.2.4 The expiry of sixty (60) working days from the mediator's appointment, unless the parties expressly consent to an extension of this period.

14.3 If the mediation should be terminated as provided in 14.2.2, 14.2.3 or 14.2.4, any dispute or difference arising out of or in connection with this deed, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in New Zealand in accordance with New Zealand law and the current Arbitration Protocol of the Arbitrators and Mediators Institute of New Zealand Inc. The arbitration shall be by one arbitrator to be agreed upon by the parties and if they should fail to agree within twenty-one (21) days, then to be appointed by the President of the Arbitrators and Mediators Institute of New Zealand Inc.
